HAD A GREAT TIME

ST. JOSEPH PEOPLE SAW THE "SIGHTS" IN MARYVILLE.

PRAISE FROM THE PAPERS

Favorable Notice for Other Towns in County, and Bedford Held Up as Pattern for Maryville.

Members of the Commerce club of St. Joseph, who were in Maryville Thursday on a get-acquainted trip, were well pleased with their reception here and spoke highly of the royal entertainment provided for them. The Commercial club of this city had charge of the arrangements and were strongly complimented for their hospitality by the visitors. But then, Maryville is noted for her hospitality.

Here is what the St. Joseph News-Press says of the reception tendered the St. Joseph club by Maryville: "The people of Maryville gave the St. Joseph Commerce club's get-acquainted excursionists a splendid reception today. The special train arrived here at 12:37 o'clock p. m., and motor cars and omnibuses were waiting at the railroad station to convey the visitors uptown. The tourists were taken at once to the Christian church, where they were served by the women of that congregation with a feast fit for the gods. It was made up largely of chicken of the yellow-legged variety, and there was an abundance of it."

The following is from the St. Joseph Gazette of the Maryville reception for the St. Joseph visitors:

Fifty or sixty automobiles, many of them driven by young women, were in waiting at the Burlington's passenger station at Maryville when the train pulled into the metropolis of Northwest Missouri at 12:30. The tourists were hungry and the Maryville Commercial club had made provisions for such a condition and took the tourists direct to the First Christian church, where dinner was waiting. Nothing more bountiful has been served to the Commerce club on any of its tours. The women of the Christian church served the dinner for the Maryville Commercial club. At its close Col. R. M. Bacheller introduced former Mayor A. P. Clayton, who spoke, saying, among other things, that Maryville was his home at one time, and that he first met Mrs. Clayton in Maryville, and praised the Maryville Commercial club and the servers of the dinner. The Commerce club quartet then sang. Following the dinner the band and the quartet were taken to the new band stand in the court house yard and played and sang for more than an hour.

Maryville proved to be a great surprise to the tourists. The $15,000 Elks club building was thrown open to the visitors, and automobiles were waiting to take the tourists to the $325,000 Northwest State Normal building and through the drives of the 117-acre campus. They were shown during rides over the city St. Francis hospital, Maryville's $80,000 federal building, almost ready for the roof; excavations for the laying of the municipal steam plant mains; the plant of the city's recently acquired water works plant, on which $50,000 is to be expended for improvements in the next few months; residences, costing as much as $20,000, and many other things that have made Maryville the most famous city of Northwest Missouri. It was with genuine reluctance that the tourists left Maryville at 2:37 p. m. for Pickering.

The special train left Maryville on schedule time, and at Pickering, where a short stop was made, the school children were out, and when the St. Joseph band played "America" they sang the national anthem. As the visitors departed the band played "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

Hopkins had a big reception for the St. Joseph people, and they spoke highly of it. The railway station and many of the other buildings in that town were decorated, and suspended across the streets were banners with this inscription upon it: "Here's to the Hustlers."

A feature of the Hopkins reception was an automobile ride around town. "Deacon" Morehead of the Journal was chairman of the arrangements committee.

The last stop on the trip was at Bedford, where supper was taken. At this town a fine reception was given. Bedford is one of the best towns in this part of the state, and has many improvements that Maryville doesn't possess. One of the finest bank structures of any town in Iowa, outside of the big cities, is in Bedford. Another bank there has also a magnificent structure. The new opera house is also one that many cities don't have.

But what impressed the visitors and also those from Maryville was that Bedford's business section is lighted with an ornamental lighting system, four clusters of tungsten burners on an ornamental post. Maryville has been after a "white way" lighting system for some time, and would do well to install it before many smaller towns are putting it in.

J. F. Hull, Frank Shoemaker and James Todd accompanied the St. Joseph party from Maryville to Bedford and return as far as this city.

Guests From Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCrary, Mrs. Mary Swain and Miss Anna Swain of Carthage, Ill., arrived in Maryville Thursday night for a ten days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Preston Seafers.

Dawson Spoke at Grant City.

John M. Dawson, county chairman of the Democratic county committee, went to Grant City Friday, where he spoke at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Dawson was called there to take the place of Mr. Barker, who was unable to fill his engagement, owing to being sick.

To Hold Meeting.

A meeting of the various presidents and two delegates from each of the young people's societies of the Protestant churches will be held on Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the choir room of the First M. E. church. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss plans for future union meetings of these societies.

Sues for $2,438.85.

In a suit filed Friday by Attorneys Wright and Ford for John A. Burch against Lee and Harriett Garman, he asks for $2,438.85. The petition alleges that the plaintiff and defendants gave their promissory note for $563.85 on December 22, 1911, payable to Lee G. Martin after six months, and that the plaintiff paid the money and that the defendants have paid no part. The petition states that the plaintiff went on the note as surety for the defendants, and that the defendants received the money. There is also a second count to the petition asking for $1,875 on a note.

Escaped From Sanitarium.

Dr. C. R. Woodson, superintendent of the Woodson sanitarium at St. Joseph, writes that Louis S. Logan escaped from that institution October 20. The following is a description of the man:

Louis S. Logan, 36 years old, about 5 feet 5 inches tall, weight about 120 or 125 pounds, blue eyes, medium dark hair, rather bald; when left had not shaved for six weeks. Wore blue serge suit, blue necktie, low cut shoes, black stiff hat; had on leather wristlets and restraint straps.

Will pay $10.00 reward to anyone who will hold him until I can send a man for him. He escaped from the above named institution October 20.

Address all information to the above named institution.

ENFORCE THE LAW

IT WILL DO MUCH TO PREVENT SPREAD OF CHOLERA.

SERUM USE INCREASES

Demand is Greater Than Supply and Will Continue to Increase Unless Prompt Steps Are Taken.

(By S. M. Jordan, Manager Pettis County, Mo., Bureau of Agriculture.)

Most every county paper that comes to my desk has something to say about loss from hog cholera. In view of these facts why would it not be well to start a "law enforcement" campaign?

It is well known, or should be, that this is a germ disease, and dreadfully contagious. The germs are carried by streams of water, pigeons, dogs, crows, buzzards, flies and by persons. In fact, any object to which these germs will adhere may spread the disease. One farmer near a city told me that when one or more of his hogs died, all he had to do was to notify the packing house and they would send a team out and get the carcasses. This is violation of law. This is also an admirable way to spread the disease. The disease germs are scattered more or less along the road over which the dead hogs are taken. The germs adhere to shoes, and horses feet pick them up and perhaps carry them to your home or farm. Buzzards are laden with these disease germs as are flies, dogs, crows, etc., and many of these get over sometimes thousands of miles of territory, and they are certain to carry this dread disease with them.

A letter from Dean Mumford tells me that "the demands for serum are far in excess of ability to supply." It is likely true that more serum is called for this season than was last, and more will be called for next season than this unless other measures are enforced. Serum does not prevent the disease being spread by dogs, buzzards, etc., when they have access to the carcasses.

Burning is the best way to dispose of the dead hogs. The law requires that the bodies be burned or buried within 24 hours after they die, but instead the bodies are thrown into streams or ditches, and all carion eating animals feast upon them, and the water carries the germs down the streams and thus the grim destroyer is spread, and all because the law is not obeyed.

Missouri entails a loss of millions of dollars a year from this dread disease, all because the law is not obeyed. Cattle feeders are meeting a great loss because they dare not risk buying hogs to follow cattle, all because the law is not obeyed.

Consumers are made to pay almost prohibitive prices for both beef and pork all because the law is not being obeyed. Farmers have to sell their corn on the market instead of feeding it, and thus making a profit on the feed, and retaining the fertility for the farm all because the law is not being obeyed.

This disobedience is seriously affecting every person in the state, and why not all get busy and see that the law is obeyed in this hog cholera matter? If newspapers will take it up, and the people see that every constable does his full duty, and that every judge assesses the fine of from $10 to $50 for each offense, the disease can soon be practically wiped out, and serum and sanitation will do the rest.

If your neighbor violates this law "pull" him. If you violate, and your neighbor "pulls" you, don't kick, he is doing you and others a favor. If your constable does not do his duty, bring suit against him. Make it your business to see that he "pinches" every violation.

If this law is violated in your township and you do not want to have the violators "pinched," send me the name and address of your constable, and I will endeavor to have "said pinching" done.

Dr. Taylor to Speak.

"Educational amendment No. 9" will be the subject of an address by H. K. Taylor, president of the Northwest Missouri Normal school, at Agency, in Buchanan county, on Tuesday evening. It will be a mass meeting, held in the Methodist church, and will be open to all. Bills advertising the meeting refer to the amendment as "possibly the greatest educational advance ever proposed in Missouri." The voter is urged to "scratch no, vote yes."

Mrs. Ira Bailey and daughters, living southwest of Maryville, went to Pickering Friday to visit her brother-in-law, W. E. Bloomfield, and family.

Mrs. Harry Cochran, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Cabbage, returned to her home in Lebo, Ia., Thursday.

APPOINTED ADMINISTRATOR.

Probate Judge Rea of Andrew County Selected for the Stonehocker Estate.

Probate Judge W. H. Conn appointed Thursday Probate Judge Rea of Andrew county administrator of the estate of Robert William Stonehocker, who died at his home in Guilford on October 15, according to the wishes of the heirs of the estate. Judge Conn, in speaking of the appointment of a probate judge as administrator of an estate, said that this was the first time in this county, and that he didn't know of another case on record.

A Great Wheat Acreage.

Hughes township was probably the banner township of Nodaway county for wheat last year, and from all reports bids fair to being in the front rank in the wheat growing townships of the county for 1913, says the Skidmore News Era.

George McNeal, one of the best posted farmers of the township, says that there is, at a conservative estimate, at least one-third more acres of wheat sown by Hughes township farmers this fall than last fall, and wheat never looked better than it does this fall. Following are a few of the Hughes township farmers who put in over 100 acres in wheat:

J. M. Wilson, 210 acres.

Miller Bros., 175 acres.

Fred Feinkelner, 100 acres.

T. L. Goff, 100 acres.

Besides these, there are a large number of farmers who have sown from forty to eighty acres. This has been a fine fall so far, and if the winter and spring is favorable Hughes township should have a record breaking wheat crop.

Pickering Charge M. E. Church.

Last conference year there were eighteen accessions to the church, beside those that came by letters. Improvements are all paid for, and all bills promptly met, with a surplus in the incidental fund to begin the new year. For the benevolences of the church the grand total was $585.

The new year starts out well. Next Sunday, October 27, each appointment will have a preaching service. At Pickering the pastor will preach at 11 a. m. at Mozingo Valley the Rev. W. B. Christy, district superintendent, will preach at 11 a. m. At Myrtle Tree the pastor will preach at 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at each place at 10 a. m. Epworth League at Pickering at 6:30 p. m.

Quarterly conference at Pickering at 2 p. m. on Saturday, October 26.

The pastor and people bid all who wish to worship with us a hearty welcome.

H. J. DUEKER, Pastor.

Returned From The West.

J. W. Ray and F. C. Conrad returned this week from a business trip in Montana and Wyoming. Mr. Conrad purchased a section of land in Wyoming, near Mr. Ray's land holdings.

The Maryville orchestra, under direction of Mr. W. Lee Griffin, will be on duty each day and will render its best music.

The new piano store would be a credit to Kansas City, and that Maryville can show so beautiful a business place to visitors in our city should be a matter of great pride to us all.

The store is easily located from any place on Main street, as it is the only white front store on the street. The entire front of the store proper is of plate glass, and the beautiful arrangement of the various musical instruments on the polished, hardwood floors and the exquisitely tinted walls, is inviting to say the least.

Old Biddy a Gold Mine.

From the official statistics the Missouri hen is proving herself a regular gold mine, and this year she seemed to have been working overtime to keep up her reputation.

Mrs. John Pruett, a lady of Skidmore, can testify to the worth of the "pride of Missouri," the hen. From three dozen hens she has this year sold over $83 worth of chickens and has 200 young fries left, beside the hens. This was done, says Mrs. Pruett, without the aid of an incubator, brooder or any of the new fangled ideas of raising chickens. Great is the Missouri hen. She can be excelled only by an industrious Missouri woman, who sees to it that old biddy is kept busk hatching chickens.—Skidmore News Era.

Mrs. H. K. Taylor and her sister, Mrs. Lee S. Bowden of Louisville, Ky., went to St. Joseph Thursday evening for a few days' visit with their sister, Mrs. L. C. Gabbert.

Mrs. Rebecca Gray and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wait of Healy, Kan., went to Bedison Friday to spend the day with Mrs. Gray's daughter, Mrs. O. E. Wright, and family.

WORK HAS STARTED

EXCAVATION FOR STEAM HEATING MAINS IN PROGRESS.

THREE WEEKS TO FINISH

In That Time or a Little Longer Stoves in Business Houses Will Be Thing of the Past.

Work was commenced Thursday noon on digging up the streets for laying the mains for the new heating system to be installed by the Electric Light company. The mains are to be laid down in the ground a distance of six feet, and on each side of the mains will be a row of tiles so as to keep the water from these pipes.

The work of digging was started at the electric light plant, and the mains will go up Fifth street to Main, and on Main street the mains will go as far as the opera house block. On Third street it will extend from Main to Buchanan, and on Fourth street, from Main to Market.

It is expected that it will take from three to four weeks for everything to be ready so for this heating service can be given. The local plumbers will have charge of putting in the radiators in the business stores for this service.

These streets where the mains will go will have to be dug up, but the light company has given sufficient bond that they will put the streets back in good condition.

W. P. Currie, an engineer from Lockport, N. Y., is in charge of the work. The steam will be supplied from the electric light plant through the mains.

BACK FROM BIG CONVENTION.

Rev. Miller Saw 20,000 People in Communion Service Sunday in Louisville—Mrs. Robinson Sang.

Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Miller of the Christian church and Mrs. F. P. Robinson have returned from the Christian national convention, which was in session last week at Louisville, Ky. Rev. Miller says that it was one of the biggest meetings he ever attended, and it was a grand sight to see 20,000 people in communion service last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Frank, who also attended the meeting, remained for a longer visit with relatives in Kentucky.

Mrs. Robinson, who returned the first of the week, sang several numbers during the convention, and Mr. and Mrs. Miller feel pardonable pride in the many splendid comments they heard of her singing. The convention hall held 25,000 people, and they gave our Jenny Lind the recognition she deserves.

Home on Visit.

Miss Myrtle Sheldon arrived in Maryville Friday noon from Richmond, Mo., for a visit until Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Sheldon. Miss Sheldon is well pleased with her work as voice teacher in Woodson institute at Richmond.

Still in Critical Condition.

Mrs. Burton O'Connell, who was thought improving the first of the week, is very ill again at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Callahan. Dr. Forgraves of Kansas City now has charge of her case, and two new nurses arrived yesterday from St. Joseph, the other nurses on the case having left for a rest.

Uncle John Baker of Elmo, who is nearly 80 years old, was stricken with paralysis while uptown Thursday morning. He is very ill and the chances for recovery are against him.

LET THE PEOPLE KNOW.

The following two editorials are from this week's issue of the Ravenwood Gazette:

The G. O. P. elephant and Bull Moose may make a good team in some places, but how they will pull together on November 3 remains to be seen. We refer to the Nodaway county candidates that were nominated by the Republicans, and since then (with the exceptions of one or two) have been endorsed by the Bull Moose party, and apparently stand astride the fence with one foot on the G. O. P. elephant and the other on the Bull Moose, and there seems to be no way of getting them off of either, except by ballot on November 5th. "What will the harvest be?"

When the county Republicans and Bull Moosers attempt to vote for county candidates on November 5 how are they going to tell whether they are voting for a Bull Moose or a Republican, and suppose some Democrats want to do likewise, how could he tell. The boys should fall off the fence and let the people know where they are at.

STEEL TRUST BACK OF T. R. TRUST PLAN

Charge Challenged, Gov. Wilson Returns With Prompt and Convincing Answer.

COUNTRY WAITED FOR CLASH

Wondered if It Was to Produce a Parallel of Parker Episode—More Proof if It Is Wanted.

When the country read on the morning of Oct. 8 the charge of Woodrow Wilson before his audience in Colorado that the steel trust is back of the Roosevelt program of trust regulation and in the same papers Colonel Roosevelt's demand for proof of the assertion it sat up and took notice. Would this produce a parallel of the famous episode of the 1904 campaign, when the colonel called Judge Parker a liar for asserting (what has been so recently proved) that the corporations were contributing to the Roosevelt campaign?

There was eager waiting for Governor Wilson's answer. It came promptly the next day in his speech at Kansas City. Concisely, convincingly and dispassionately Governor Wilson met the Roosevelt challenge, and about the controversy be pressed further the Democratic candidate will give the Bull Moose all he wants, for the corroboration whereof he spoke is abundant.

Wilson's Charge.

At Pueblo, the center of the western steel industry, Governor Wilson said: "Evidence of what I am about to say comes to me by way of corroboration every day in forms that I cannot question. It is a very interesting circumstance that the United States Steel corporation is behind the third party program with regard to the regulation of the trusts.

"Now, I do not say that to prejudice you. I am perfectly ready to admit that the officers of that corporation may think that the third party is the best thing for the United States. That is not my point. My point is that these gentlemen have grown up in the atmosphere of the things they themselves have created and that the laws of the United States so far have attempted to destroy the things that they have created and that they now want a government which will perpetuate the things they have created.

"You therefore have to choose how a government such as the United States Steel corporation thinks the United States ought to have or a government such as we used to have before these gentlemen succeeded in setting up private monopoly."

Roosevelt's Challenge.

The same night at Albany, N. Y., Colonel Roosevelt upon reading reports of Governor Wilson's speech said: "As far as I know the statement has not the slightest foundation in fact. Mr. Wilson has no business to make such a statement unless he has the proof, and if he has any proof I demand that he make it public immediately. If he has not let him retract his statement as the only manly and honorable thing to do."

Wilson's "Retort Courteous."

The next night Governor Wilson made this reply before the great audience that greeted him in Kansas City:

"I understand from the newspaper reports that Mr. Roosevelt was distressed by my suggestion the other day that the United States Steel corporation was back of his plan for controlling the trusts. He interpreted my remark to mean that they were supporting him with their money. I was not thinking about money.

"I do not know whether they are supporting him with their money or not. It does not make any difference. What I meant was that they are supporting him with their thought, and their thought is not our thought. I meant, and I say again, that the kind of control which he proposes is the kind of control that the United States Steel corporation wants.

"I am perfectly willing to admit that they think it is the best for the country. My point is that this is a method conceived from the point of view of the very men who are to be controlled and that is just the wrong point of view from which to conceive it.

"If Mr. Roosevelt is willing to have Mr. Perkins suggest how the corporations ought to be regulated why will he not be willing to take suggestions from the same quarters as to the details of the regulation? Mark you, ladies and gentlemen, I know Mr. George Perkins. I have no quarrel with anything except his judgment. He does not look at these things in the way men who do not wish to accustom their minds to monopoly look at them."

There should be an immediate revision of the tariff downward. It should begin with the schedules most obviously used to kill competition and raise prices in the United States and should be extended to every item which affords opportunity for monopoly and special advantage until special favors shall have been absolutely withdrawn and our laws of taxation transformed from a system of governmental patronage into a system of just and reasonable charges which shall fall where they will create the least burden.

John Barrett sold a car load of twenty-five yearlings in St. Joseph last week, which came near topping the market, notes the Skidmore New Era. Only one car of heavy cattle sold for more money. These calves were put on corn feed last April and given full feed until about the first of May, and averaged 1,100 pounds in St. Joseph and brought $9.25 per hundred pounds. Grand old Missouri's blue grass and big yellow corn, two of our most famous products, are bound to make money when fed into $9.25 cattle.

UNMASKING THE TARIFF DELUSION

Franklin Pierce Shows That Labor Is Not Benefited by Unjust Tax.

MANUFACTURER KEEPS PROFIT

Proof of Democratic Platform's Soundness Cited in Reports of Wage Investigations.

By FRANKLIN PIERCE.

For a hundred years of our history the manufacturers, believing that they received a benefit from the protective tariffs, have ingeniously devised plausible pretexts for imposing increased prices upon the necessities of life. At first they said that industry in our country was in its infancy and needed protection. When those industries had become strong and needed no aid the manufacturers invented the theory that the foreigner paid the duty. This theory was exploded, and they declared that cheap clothing meant cheap men and was not a blessing.

Driven from every one of these indefensible positions, their final and only argument left today is that the tariff is imposed upon foreign imports to enable the manufacturer to increase his profits and pay higher wages.

The Democratic platform declares that:

"In the most highly protected industries, such as cotton and wool, steel and iron, the wages of the laborers are the lowest paid in any of our industries."

Proof of this statement is found in reports of many recent official investigations of wages in the United States.

Wages in Cotton Industry.

Under the existing Payne-Aldrich tariff law actual imports of cotton cloth paid in 1910 average duties of $6.4 per cent.

In 1905, when work and wage conditions in the cotton industry were exceptionally good, the wages of 202,211 cotton mill operatives in the United States—men, women and children—averaged only $6.47 a week. The average wage for men was but $7.71 a week, for women $5.30 and for children, $3.21.

As to the profits, seventeen leading cotton mills, with total capitalization of $25,110,000 and total surplus of $21,363,501, paid in nine years dividends averaging 22 per cent.

The cotton manufacturers turned out in 1905 $442,451,218 worth of goods and paid in wages therefore $54,337,695, or 21 per cent. of the value of the finished product.

Extortion of Wool Tariff.

Outside of the duties on two or three commodities of comparatively little importance, the duties on woolen cloth are the highest of any in the tariff schedules. According to Senator Reed Smoot, owner of a woolen mill at Provo, Utah, and chairman of the finance committee in charge of tariff legislation in the senate, wearing apparel valued at 30 cents a pound now pays 206.23 per cent. duty.

This and other correspondingly high duties on the manufactures of wool are made to enable the manufacturer to pay his labor an increased wage over those of foreign countries. But the duty on woolen goods is nearly five times the entire labor cost, while the American manufacturers in 1905 paid in wages only 18 per cent. of the total value of their production.

At Lawrence in this most highly protected industry the laborers were obliged to strike even for a living wage. Thousands of adult males were receiving only from $6 to $9 a week and many only $5 to $6 a week. As a result of the strike the American Woolen company gave its employees slight increases in wages.

The wool tariff bill vetoed by President Taft reduced the duties on raw wool from 42.20 to 25 per cent. and on manufactures of wool from $7.65 to 48.36 per cent. Mr. Taft said he vetoed it because the proposed rates did not comply with the findings of the tariff board. Senator La Follette contradicted the president, saying that the proposed rates varied from 1 per cent. lower to 11.6 higher than the tariff board's findings justified.

Low Wages in Steel.

Manufacturers of iron and steel in 1905 paid in wages only 16 per cent. of the total value of their production, while the duty then would average about 45 to 47 per cent., and on all metals it now averages 34.61 per cent.

American wages are really the cheapest wages in the world when you take into account the amount of production per man.

An illustration of this appears in the Stanley report, investigating the steel trust, as follows:

"The labor cost of producing pig iron in Pennsylvania fell from $1.25 a ton in 1902 to 82 cents a ton in 1909, yet the realized value of the pig iron output was $16.64 in 1902, whereas it was $17.44 in 1909. In other words, wage workers in 1902 got $1.25 for producing only $16.64 worth of pig iron and in 1909 only 82 cents for producing $17.44 worth.

While thus treating labor the industrial combinations that have grown up under the protection of the tariff have fixed the prices of commodities at the highest point the home market would stand. For twelve years they have been unjustly transferring through the protection tariff billions of dollars from the earnings of labor into their own pockets.

When will the laboring men of the country cast off this delusion that the tariff is for their benefit and with their votes strike down this monstrous injustice?

HOW TO TAKE A SUN BATH

Treatment is Declared to Be a Sure Cure for Many Varieties of the Ailments of Humanity.

The sun bath is rapidly gaining popularity. It was not unknown to the Romans, who indulged in sun baths to cure gout and rheumatism. The buildings they erected in their villas for the sunray treatment were styled solariums.

All that is needed is the sun; but it should not be allowed to beat down upon the head, which should be covered. The prospective sun-bather should get into an ordinary bathing costume and lie down in a convenient spot on a rug. Care should be taken to secure a position well out of the wind, and, of course, the body must be moved about every ten minutes to avoid undue burning of any specific part of the anatomy. Also, a bath should never by any chance last longer than an hour. Dizziness, extreme excitement, even faintness will be the inevitable result should this warning be disregarded.

The sun bath is said to be an almost infallible cure for certain skin diseases, for undue corpulence and run-down nerves.

Perhaps the cult of the sun bath is more popular at a small place near Berlin, where the adherents of the new and simple cure have formed themselves into an association.

The statement by Hooker, filed in compliance with the campaign publicity law requiring a publication of financial affairs ten days before the election, is the first complete statement to come from any of the three principal parties. It embraces all receipts and disbursements from July 1, marking the first activities of the Progressive party.

The Republican and Democratic statements will be filed at Washington Saturday, according to announcements of the respective committees.

The sum of $95,563.54 was sent to 37 Progressive state committees for the work of state organization."

The Progressive national committee received 4,687 contributions of $1 each, 16 of 25 cents each, 12 of 50 cents each, and a large number of from $20 to $250. The total contributions of Medill McCormick, vice-chairman of the national committee, were $1,000.89.

FEDERAL ARMY DECEIVED DIAZ?

Soldiers Say Rebel General Told His Men Troops Were Coming to Enlist in His Cause.

Vera Cruz, Oct. 25.—Gen. Felix Diaz, captured in the wreck of his rebellion, told his men that the federal troops advancing on Vera Cruz were coming to enlist under his flag of insurrection. Therefore, when Madero's soldiers came in view the rebels gave way as they would to friends. They made no resistance and the fall of the city before the loyal force was brought about so easily that it could be looked upon as a farce but for the tragedy, it is believed, awaits in the fate of the leader. That was the explanation of the lack of resistance they showed, as given by the Diaz soldiers.

Berlin, Oct. 25.—The German emperor is giving his close personal attention to the prevention of mine disasters and hopes by means of chemistry to find a practicable safety device. MANY MISSOURI HOGS DYING

FARMERS BLAMED FOR SPREAD OF HOG CHOLERA.

Pettis County Expert Says if Carcasses Are Burned, Epidemic Will Soon Stop.

Sedalia, Mo., Oct. 25.—S. M. Jordan, manager of the Pettis county board of agriculture, after receiving reports from several counties in regard to the spread of hog cholera, said the disease is costing Missouri millions of dollars yearly because the law is not enforced.

Cholera is a germ disease, Mr. Jordan says, and highly contagious. The germs are carried by streams of water, pigeons, dogs, crows, buzzards, flies and by persons.

Serum does not prevent the disease being spread by dogs and birds when they have access to the carcasses. Burning is the best way to dispose of the dead hogs.

The law requires that the bodies be burned or buried within 24 hours after they die, but instead the bodies are sometimes thrown into streams or ditches and all carrion eating animals and birds feast upon them. The water carries the germs down the stream to other farms. Mr. Jordan says that if the law is enforced the disease can soon be wiped out practically and serum and sanitation will do the rest.

STATE INSURES ITS CITIZENS

Wisconsin, First State in the Union to Write Policies, Ready for Applications.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 25.—The state of Wisconsin formally went into the insurance business, establishing a precedent, inasmuch as no state's citizens have heretofore been taken as insurance risks by the state in which they live.

Herman L. Ekern, state insurance commissioner, has just opened his office for applications in accordance with an act of the last legislature. Policies of $500 up will be written, payments to be made yearly, semi-yearly, quarterly or monthly. Any policy holder may be his own agent under the new plan and any healthy resident of Wisconsin between the ages of 20 and 50 is eligible.

The trip will be completed in four or five days.

Shrapnel Exploded in Vise.

Junction City, Kan., Oct. 25.—A shrapnel shell that had been placed in a vise exploded at Port Riley and the base tore a hole in one gun shed, while the point, with its 250 bullets, riddled the roof of another shed. Mystery in Czarevitch's Case.

Berlin, Oct. 25.—Startling rumors concerning the condition of the czarevitch were current here. One report had it that the boy was stabbed by a Nihilist, another that he is a victim of a serious kidney trouble, but none of these rumors was verified. The czarina, according to one report, tried to leap from a high window when she learned how seriously her son was ill.

Cholera Sweeping India.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Cholera again is sweeping India, according to a report to the United States public health service. In August, in the province of Madras alone, there were 21,206 cases and 10,620 deaths, and in other parts of the empire an equally ominous mortality prevailed.

LIEUT. BECKER IS CONVICTED

Jury Brings Verdict of Murder in First Degree.

PELVITY IS ELECTRIC CHAIR

Police Officer Responsible for Killing of New York Gambler Will Appeal Case—Headed Ring of Grifters.

New York, Oct. 25.—Police Lieut. Charles Becker was found guilty of murder in the first degree by the jury which has been trying him for instigating the death of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler.

The verdict was received at 12:02 o'clock a. m.

Becker was remanded for sentence to the Tombs by Justice Goff until October 30.

Mrs. Becker, sitting outside the door of the courtroom, fell in a swoon when the verdict was announced.

To Appeal at Once.

John F. McIntyre, Becker's chief counsel, announced that he would take an immediate appeal, but added beyond this he had nothing to say.

At 11:57 o'clock Justice Goff entered the court room and bowing low to counsel, took his seat. The jury roll was called. The clerk then asked the jurors if they had reached a verdict.

"We have," announced the foreman. The jury rose to its feet.

"We find the defendant guilty as charged in the indictment," Mr. Skinner said, slowly and evenly, looking squarely at Justice Goff.

"Do you find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree as charged in the indictment?" asked the clerk.

"We do," the foreman replied.

Jury Roll Called.

The court then directed that the roll of the jurors be called for their individual verdicts. As he repeated the question: "Do you find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree as charged?" each juror answered, "I do."

Charles Becker sat in his cell in the Tombs while across the "bridge of sighs," in the darkened Criminal Courts building, 12 men struggled to decide whether he was guilty of the murder of Herman Rosenthal.

Depended on Schepps.

The charge, in effect, was a ruling that the guilt or innocence of the prisoner rested almost solely upon the point as to whether Sam Schepps was an accomplice to the crime. Dapper little Schepps, when arrested at Hot Springs, styled himself the "keystone of the arch." As events transpired he spoke truer than he knew.

The judge himself was doubtful as to Schepps' status and declined to guide the jurors in a decision. What he did instruct them to do was to return a verdict of first degree murder or second degree murder or to acquit the defendant. Manslaughter was eliminated and "a no-compromise verdict" was directed upon the motion of Becker's lawyer. By far the greater part of the court's instructions dealt with murder in the first degree, the penalty for which is the electric chair.

STANDARD RAISES STEEL PRICE

Rockefeller Concern Cuts Off Fuel Oil—Result, $12 a Ton More for Castings.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—No more fuel oil will be sold by the Standard Oil company after December 1, according to an announcement just issued. The result of this action will be an increase of 50 per cent in several of the products of manufacturers.

The decision to stop the sale of unrefined oil for fuel was reached after an investigation showed far greater profit in selling the same product after it is refined.

Notices were received here that a large Milwaukee steel manufacturing concern would advance the price of its steel castings an average of $12 a ton, as soon as the new Standard Oil rule is put into effect.

Police Guard Hotels.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Principal hotels and cafes of the National capital were guarded by police as one of the first developments in the waters strike which has just begun and left many travelers hungry. Places of the strikers have been partially filled by negro waiters. The hotel managers say sufficient strikebreakers are on their way from New York.

Pittsboro, Ill., Oct. 25.—A negro porter was killed and three of the train crew were injured here when a special train carrying officials of the Toledo, St. Louis & Western was wrecked. The baggage car went into a ravine when a bridge collapsed.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Important witnesses wanted in the federal investigation of the Jack Johnson-Lucille Cameron affair have disappeared and officers are searching for them. Some are said by the authorities to have left the city.

CLEVER THIEVES GOT PAY CHECKS

Railroad Paper Worth $8,000 Taken From Boy at Minneapolis.

TOLD MESSENGER FAIRY STORY

Crooks Succeeded in Cashing About $2,000 Worth in Stores Before Payment Was Stopped—Real Employees Turned Down.

Minneapolis, Oct. 25.—After a day in the city, in which 173 Soo Line pay checks totaling about $8,000 were obtained from Oscar Christianson, a messenger boy, by a ruse, in the crowd on one of the principal streets of the city at noon, two men, visited a dozen department stores and other places of business in the afternoon, before warning could be issued, and cashed about 20 of the checks, valued conservatively at $2,000. The men disappeared, while almost the entire central station detail of plain clothes men were working on the case.

Employees Suffered. Late in the afternoon and at night it was practically an impossibility for the 2,000 bona fide employees of the railway to get cash for their checks, as the result of the warning that was issued by the railway as soon as the robbery was discovered.

The men, the police declare, narrowly escaped detection a number of times, but finally disappeared, laden with packages and with hundreds of dollars in their pockets, leaving the authorities with nothing upon which to work except a variety of descriptions.

Told Boy Smooth Story. According to the story of Christianson, one of the men, who later cashed the checks, approached him as he was carrying the checks from the road's general offices to the freight station and told him he was from the paymaster's office and that he had been sent to take the checks back to the general offices, as the endorsement of an official had been omitted. The boy says he gave up the checks, but becoming suspicious within a short time, called H. N. Fayst, the paymaster, and told him of the incident. The police were notified immediately.

The men narrowly escaped capture when they attempted to pass one of the checks at a local bank, which had already been notified of the theft. The clerk stepped from the window to telephone the police, when the man ran from the door, leaving the check on the counter.

HEADACHY, CONSTIPATED, BILIOUS, TAKE DELICIOUS "SYRUP OF FIGS"

If headachy, bilious, dizzy, tongue coated, stomach sour and full of gas, you belch undigested food and feel sick and miserable, it means that your liver is choked with sour bile and your thirty feet of bowels are clogged with effete waste matter not properly carried off. Constipation is worse than most folks believe. It means that this waste matter in the thirty feet of bowels decays into poisons, gases and acids and that these poisons are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which should suck only nourishment to sustain the body.

Most people dread physic. They think of castor oil, salts and cathartic pills. They shrink from the after-effects—so they postpone the dose until they get sick; then they do this liver and bowel cleansing in a heroic way—they have a bowel washday—

GOOD HORSES STILL NEEDED

Raisers May Have Little Fear That the Supply is Shortly Likely to Exceed the Demand.

The recent war game demonstrated the dearth of horses suitable for months in a section once famous for the excellence of its native horses. This community was scoured for suitable animals, and none was to be had, and the government agents said that the same conditions obtain elsewhere throughout the country, handicapping the army authorities greatly.

There is the germ of a profitable idea for our farmers in these facts. The man who has grazing facilities, and who will turn a part of his endeavors to the raising of a general purpose type of saddle horse, will not only reap a substantial money reward, but will perform a patriotic mission, not for the army, but for humanity.

The "honk" of the motor car need bring no fears to the men who will go into the perfecting of a type of horse to be known as the York state saddle horse. The aeroplane need cast no shadows over the project, improve the horse. The better he becomes adapted to man's wants the more docile and safe, the more beautiful, the greater will the demand for him grow.—Troy Standard Press.

The Leader.

All I think, will allow that these attributes should belong to a friend of the constitution. First, that he should be of free descent by both parents, so that the disadvantage of birth may not blight him against those laws which preserve the democracy. Second, that he should be able to show that some benefit has been done to the people by his ancestors; or, at the worst, that there has been no enmity between them which would prompt him to revenge the misfortunes of his fathers on the state. Third, he should be virtuous and temperate in his private life, so that no profligate expense may lead him into taking bribes to the hurt of the people. Next, he should be sagacious and able to speak—since our ideal is that the best course should be chosen by the intelligence and then commended to his hearers by the trained eloquence of the orator—though, if we cannot have both, sagacity must needs take rank before eloquence. Lastly, he must have a stout heart or he may play the country false in the crisis of danger or war.—Aeschines (389-314 B. C.).

Too Big an Insult.

Angrily the head of the haberdashery concern stormed into the employment agency and demanded an interview with the manager.

"I understand," he said, "that you have been recommending as A1 collectors certain young men whom you represent as having collected money from us. If they can get it from us, they can get it from anybody. That's the way you make it appear, consequently your clients land good jobs."

With visions of possible libel suits rising before his guilty conscience, the agent attempted self-justification. "You are considered pretty hard nuts, you know," he said. "Oh, that's all right!" said the man. "It ain't that I'm kicking about, but not one of your men has ever collected a dollar at our shop, and it isn't doing any good to lie about it."

ST. JOSEPH PEOPLE SAW THE "SIGHTS" IN MARYVILLE.

PRAISE FROM THE PAPERS

Favorable Notice for Other Towns in County, and Bedford Held Up as Pattern for Maryville.

Members of the Commerce club of St. Joseph, who were in Maryville Thursday on a get-acquainted trip, were well pleased with their reception here and spoke highly of the royal entertainment provided for them. The Commercial club of this city had charge of the arrangements and were strongly complimented for their hospitality by the visitors. But then, Maryville is noted for her hospitality.

Here is what the St. Joseph News-Press says of the reception tendered the St. Joseph club by Maryville:

The people of Maryville gave the St. Joseph Commerce club's get-acquainted excursionists a splendid reception today. The special train arrived here at 12:37 o'clock p. m., and motor cars and omnibuses were waiting at the railroad station to convey the visitors uptown. The tourists were taken at once to the Christian church, where they were served by the women of that congregation with a feast fit for the gods. It was made up largely of chicken of the yellow-legged variety, and there was an abundance of it.

The following is from the St. Joseph Gazette of the Maryville reception for the St. Joseph visitors:

Fifty or sixty automobiles, many of them driven by young women, were in waiting at the Burlington's passenger station at Maryville when the train pulled into the metropolis of Northwest Missouri at 12:30. The tourists were hungry and the Maryville Commercial club had made provisions for such a condition and took the tourists direct to the First Christian church, where dinner was waiting. Nothing more bountiful has been served to the Commerce club on any of its tours. The women of the Christian church served the dinner for the Maryville Commercial club. At its close Col. R. M. Bachelier introduced former Mayor A. P. Clayton, who spoke, saying, among other things, that Maryville was his home at one time, and that he first met Mrs. Clayton in Maryville, and praised the Maryville Commercial club and the services of the dinner. The Commerce club quartet then sang. Following the dinner the band and the quartet were taken to the new band stand in the court house yard and played and sang for more than an hour.

Maryville proved to be a great surprise to the tourists. The $15,000 Elks club building was thrown open to the visitors, and automobiles were waiting to take the tourists to the $325,000 Northwest State Normal building and through the drives of the 117-acre campus. They were shown during rides over the city St. Francis hospital, Maryville's $80,000 federal building, almost ready for the roof; excavations for the laying of the municipal steam plant mains; the plant of the city's recently acquired water works plant, on which $50,000 is to be expended for improvements in the next few months; residences, costing as much as $20,000, and many other things that have made Maryville the most famous city of Northwest Missouri. It was with genuine reluctance that the tourists left Maryville at 2:37 p. m. for Pickering.

The special train left Maryville on schedule time, and at Pickering, where a short stop was made, the school children were out, and when the St. Joseph band played "America" they sang the national anthem. As the visitors departed the band played "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

Hopkins had a big reception for the St. Joseph people, and they spoke highly of it. The railway station and many of the other buildings in that town were decorated, and suspended across the streets were banners with this inscription upon it:

"Here's to the Hustlers."

A feature of the Hopkins reception was an automobile ride around town. "Deacon" Morehead of the Journal was chairman of the arrangements committee.

The last stop on the trip was at Bedford, where supper was taken. At that town a fine reception was given. Bedford is one of the best towns in this part of the state, and has many improvements that Maryville doesn't possess. One of the finest bank structures of any town in Iowa, outside of the big cities, is in Bedford. Another bank there has also a magnificent structure. The new opera house is also one that many cities don't have.

But what impressed the visitors and also those from Maryville was that Bedford's business section is lighted with an ornamental lighting system, four clusters of tungsten burners on an ornamental post. Maryville has been after a "white way" lighting system for some time, and would do well to install it before many smaller towns are putting it in.

J. F. Hull, Frank Shoemaker and James Todd accompanied the St. Joseph party from Maryville to Bedford and return as far as this city.

To Hold Meeting.

A meeting of the various presidents and two delegates from each of the young people's societies of the Protestant churches will be held on Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the choir room of the First M. E. church. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss plans for future union meetings of these societies.

Sues for $2,438.85.

In a suit filed Friday by Attorneys Wright and Ford for John A. Burch against Lee and Harriett Garman, he asks for $2,438.85. The petition alleges that the plaintiff and defendants gave their promissory note for $563.85 on December 22, 1911, payable to Lee G. Martin after six months, and that the plaintiff paid the money and that the defendants have paid no part. The petition states that the plaintiff went on the note as surety for the defendants, and that the defendants received the money. There is also a second count to the petition asking for $1,875 on a note.

Escaped From Sanitarium.

Dr. C. R. Woodson, superintendent of the Woodson sanitarium at St. Joseph, writes that Louis S. Logan escaped from that institution October 20. The following is a description of the man:

Louis S. Logan, 36 years old, about 5 feet 5 inches tall, weight about 120 or 125 pounds, blue eyes, medium dark hair, rather bald; when left had not shaved for six weeks. Wore blue serge suit, blue necktie, low cut shoes, black stiff hat; had on leather wristlets and restraint straps.

Will pay $10.00 reward to anyone who will hold him until I can send a man for him. He escaped from the above named institution October 20.

Address all information to the above named institution.

IT WILL DO MUCH TO PREVENT SPREAD OF CHOLERA.

SERUM USE INCREASES

Demand is Greater Than Supply and Will Continue to Increase Unless Prompt Steps Are Taken.

(By S. M. Jordan, Manager Pettis County, Mo., Bureau of Agriculture.)

Most every county paper that comes to my desk has something to say about loss from hog cholera. In view of these facts why would it not be well to start a "law enforcement" campaign?

It is well known, or should be, that this is a germ disease, and dreadfully contagious. The germs are carried by streams of water, pigeons, dogs, crows, buzzards, flies and by persons. In fact, any object to which these germs will adhere may spread the disease. One farmer near a city told me that when one of his hogs died, all he had to do was to notify the packing house and they would send a team out and get the carcasses. This is violation of law. This is also an admirable way to spread the disease.

The disease germs are scattered more or less along the road over which the dead hogs are taken. The germs adhere to shoes, and horses feet pick them up and perhaps carry them to your home or farm. Buzzards are laden with these disease germs as are flies, dogs, crows, etc., and many of these get over sometimes thousands of miles of territory, and they are certain to carry this dread disease with them.

A letter from Dean Mumford tells me that "the demands for serum are far in excess of ability to supply." It is likely true that more serum is called for this season than was last, and more will be called for next season than this unless other measures are enforced. Serum does not prevent the disease being spread by dogs, buzzards, etc., when they have access to the carcasses.

Burning is the best way to dispose of the dead hogs. The law requires that the bodies be burned or buried within 24 hours after they die, but instead the bodies are thrown into streams or ditches, and all carion eating animals feast upon them, and the water carries the germs down the streams and thus the grim destroyer is spread, and all because the law is not obeyed.

Misouri entails a loss of millions of dollars a year from this dread disease, all because the law is not obeyed. Cattle feeders are meeting a great loss because they dare not risk buying hogs to follow cattle, all because the law is not obeyed.

Consumers are made to pay almost prohibitive prices for both beef and pork all because the law is not being obeyed.

Farmers have to sell their corn on the market instead of feeding it, and thus making a profit on the feed, and retaining the fertility for the farm all because the law is not being obeyed.

This disobedience is seriously affecting every person in the state, and why not all get busy and see that the law is obeyed in this hog cholera matter? If newspapers will take it up, and the people see that every constable does his full duty, and that every judge assesses the fine of from $10 to $50 for each offense, the disease can soon be practically wiped out, and serum and sanitation will do the rest.

If your neighbor violates this law "pull" him. If you violate, and your neighbor "pulls" you, don't kick, he is doing you and others a favor. If your constable does not do his duty, bring suit against him. Make it your business to see that he "pinches" every violator.

If this law is violated in your township and you do not want to have the violators "pinched," send me the name and address of your constable, and I will endeavor to have "said pinching" done.

Dr. Taylor to Speak.

"Educational amendment No. 9" will be the subject of an address by H. K. Taylor, president of the Northwest Missouri Normal school, at Agency, in Buchanan county, on Tuesday evening. It will be a mass meeting, held in the Methodist church, and will be open to all. Bills advertising the meeting refer to the amendment as "possibly the greatest educational advance ever proposed in Missouri." The voter is urged to "scratch no, vote yes."

A Great Wheat Acreage.

Hughes township was probably the banner township of Nodaway county for wheat last year, and from all reports bids fair to be in the front rank in the wheat growing townships of the county for 1913, says the Skidmore New Era.

George McNeal, one of the best posted farmers of the township, says that there is, at a conservative estimate, at least one-third more acres of wheat sown by Hughes township farmers this fall than last fall, and wheat never looked better than it does this fall. Following are a few of the Hughes township farmers who put in over 100 acres in wheat:

J. M. Wilson, 210 acres.

Miller Bros., 175 acres.

Fred Feinbeimer, 100 acres.

T. L. Goff, 100 acres.

Besides these, there are a large number of farmers who have sown from forty to eighty acres. This has been a fine fall so far, and if the winter and spring is favorable Hughes township should have a record breaking wheat crop.

The Maryville orchestra, under direction of Mr. W. Lee Griffin, will be on duty each day and will render its best music.

The new piano store would be a credit to Kansas City, and that Maryville can show so beautiful a business place to visitors in our city should be a matter of great pride to us all.

The store is easily located from any place on Main street, as it is the only white front store on the street. The entire front of the store proper is of plate glass, and the beautiful arrangement of the various musical instruments on the polished, hardwood floors and the exquisitely tinted walls, is inviting to say the least.

Old Biddy a Gold Mine.

From the official statistics the Missouri hen is proving herself a regular gold mine, and this year she seemed to have been working overtime to keep up her reputation.

Mrs. John Pruett, a lady of Skidmore, can testify to the worth of the "pride of Missouri," the hen. From three dozen hens she has this year sold over $83 worth of chickens and has 200 young fries left, beside the hens. This was done, says Mrs. Pruett, without the aid of an incubator, brooder or any of the new fangled ideas of raising chickens. Great is the Missouri hen. She can be excelled only by an industrious Missouri woman, who sees to it that old biddy is kept busk hatching chickens—Skidmore New Era.

Mrs. H. K. Taylor and her sister, Mrs. Lee S. Bowden of Louisville, Ky., went to St. Joseph Thursday evening for a few days' visit with their sister, Mrs. L. C. Gabbert.

WORK HAS STARTED

EXCAVATION FOR STEAM HEATING MAINS IN PROGRESS.

THREE WEEKS TO FINISH

In That Time or a Little Longer Stoves in Business Houses Will Be Thing of the Past.

Work was commenced Thursday noon on digging up the streets for laying the mains for the new heating system to be installed by the Electric Light company. The mains are to be laid down in the ground a distance of six feet, and on each side of the mains will be a row of tiles so as to keep the water from these pipes.

The work of digging was started at the electric light plant, and the mains will go up Fifth street to Main, and on Main street the mains will go as far as the opera house block. On Third street it will extend from Main to Buchanan, and on Fourth street, from Main to Market.

It is expected that it will take from three to four weeks for everything to be ready so as this heating service can be given. The local plumbers will have charge of putting in the radiators in the business stores for this service.

These streets where the mains will go will have to be dug up, but the light company has given sufficient bond that they will put the streets back in good condition.

W. P. Currie, an engineer from Lockport, N. Y., is in charge of the work. The steam will be supplied from the electric light plant through the mains.

BACK FROM BIG CONVENTION.

Rev. Miller Saw 20,000 People in Communion Service Sunday in Louisville—Mrs. Robinson Sang.

Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Miller of the Christian church and Mrs. F. P. Robinson have returned from the Christian national convention, which was in session last week at Louisville, Ky. Rev. Miller says that it was one of the biggest meetings he ever attended, and it was a grand sight to see 20,000 people in communion service last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Frank, who also attended the meeting, remained for a longer visit with relatives in Kentucky.

Mrs. Robinson, who returned the first of the week, sang several numbers during the convention, and Mr. and Mrs. Miller feel pardonable pride in the many splendid comments they heard of her singing. The convention hall held 25,000 people, and they gave our Jenny Lind the recognition she deserves.

LET THE PEOPLE KNOW.

The following two editorials are from this week's issue of the Ravenwood Gazette:

The G. O. P. elephant and Bull Moose may make a good team in some places, but they will pull together on November 3 remains to be seen. We refer to the Nodaway county candidates that were nominated by the Republicans, and since then (with the exceptions of one or two) have been endorsed by the Bull Moose party, and apparently stand astride the fence with one foot on the G. O. P. elephant and the other on the Bull Moose, and there seems to be no way of getting them off of either, except by ballot on November 5th. "What will the harvest be?"

When the Democrats and Bull Moosers attempt to vote for county candidates on November 5 how are they going to tell whether they are voting for a Bull Moose or a Republican, and suppose some Democrats want to do likewise, how could he tell. The boys should fall off the fence and let the people know where they are at.

STEEL TRUST BACK OF T. R. TRUST PLAN

Charge Challenged, Gov. Wilson
Returns With Prompt and Convincing Answer.

COUNTRY WAITED FOR CLASH

Wondered if It Was to Produce a
Parallel of Parker Episode—More
Proof if It Is Wanted.

When the country read on the morning of Oct. 8 the charge of Woodrow Wilson before his audience in Colorado that the steel trust is back of the Roosevelt program of trust regulation and in the same papers Colonel Roosevelt's demand for proof of the assertion it sat up and took notice. Would this produce a parallel of the famous episode of the 1904 campaign, when the colonel called Judge Parker a liar for asserting (what has been so recently proved) that the corporations were contributing to the Roosevelt campaign?

There was eager waiting for Governor Wilson's answer. It came promptly the next day in his speech at Kansas City. Concisely, convincingly and dispassionately Governor Wilson met the Roosevelt challenge, and should the controversy be pressed further the Democratic candidate will give the Bull Moose all he wants, for the corroboration whereof he spoke is abundant.

Wilson's Charge.

At Pueblo, the center of the western steel industry, Governor Wilson said: "Evidence of what I am about to say comes to me by way of corroboration every day in forms that I cannot question. It is a very interesting circumstance that the United States Steel corporation is behind the third party program with regard to the regulation of the trusts."

"Now, I do not say that to prejudice you. I am perfectly ready to admit that the officers of that corporation may think that the third party is the best thing for the United States. That is not my point. My point is that these gentlemen have grown up in the atmosphere of the things they themselves have created and that the laws of the United States so far have attempted to destroy the things that they have created and that they now want a government which will perpetuate the things they have created."

"You therefore have to choose how a government such as the United States Steel corporation thinks the United States ought to have or a government such as we used to have before these gentlemen succeeded in setting up private monopoly."

Roosevelt's Challenge.

The same night at Albany, N. Y., Colonel Roosevelt upon reading reports of Governor Wilson's speech said:

"As far as I know the statement has not the slightest foundation in fact. Mr. Wilson has no business to make such a statement unless he has the proof, and if he has any proof I demand that he make it public immediately. If he has not let him retract his statement as the only manly and honorable thing to do."

Wilson's "Retort Courteous"

The next night Governor Wilson made this reply before the great audience that greeted him in Kansas City:

"I understand from the newspaper reports that Mr. Roosevelt was distressed by my suggestion the other day that the United States Steel corporation was back of his plan for controlling the trusts. He interpreted my remark to mean that they were supporting him with their money. I was not thinking about money."

"I do not know whether they are supporting him with their money or not. It does not make any difference. What I meant was that they are supporting him with their thought, and their thought is not our thought. I meant, and I say again, that the kind of control which he proposes is the kind of control that the United States Steel corporation wants."

"I am perfectly willing to admit that they think it is the best for the country. My point is that this is a method conceived from the point of view of the very men who are to be controlled and that that is just the wrong point of view from which to conceive it."

"If Mr. Roosevelt is willing to have Mr. Perkins suggest how the corporations ought to be regulated why will he not be willing to take suggestions from the same quarters as to the details of the regulation? Mark you, ladies and gentlemen, I am not discussing individuals. I know Mr. George Perkins. I have no quarrel with anything except his judgment. He does not look at these things in the way men who do not wish to accustom their minds to monopoly look at them."

There should be an immediate revision of the tariff downward. It should begin with the schedules most obviously used to kill competition and raise prices in the United States, and should be extended to every item which affords opportunity for monopoly and special advantage until special favors shall have been absolutely withdrawn and our laws of taxation transformed from a system of governmental patronage into a system of just and reasonable charges which shall fall where they will create the least burden.

John Barrett sold a car load of twenty-five yearlings in St. Joseph last week, which came near topping the market, notes the Skidmore New Era. Only one car of heavy cattle sold for more money. These calves were put on corn feed last April and given full feed until about the first of May, and averaged 1,100 pounds in St. Joseph and brought $9.25 per hundred pounds. Grand old Missouri's blue grass and big yellow corn, two of our most famous products, are bound to make money when fed into $9.25 cattle.

UNMASKING THE TARIFF DELUSION

Franklin Pierce Shows That Labor Is Not Benefited by Unjust Tax.

MANUFACTURER KEEPS PROFIT

Proof of Democratic Platform's Soundness Cited in Reports of Wage Investigations.

By FRANKLIN PIERCE.
For a hundred years of our history the manufacturers, believing that they received a benefit from the protective tariffs, have ingeniously devised plausible pretenses for imposing increased prices upon the necessities of life. At first they said that industry in our country was in its infancy and needed protection. When those industries had become strong and needed no aid the manufacturers invented the theory that the foreigner paid the duty. This theory was exploded, and they declared that cheap clothing meant cheap men and was not a blessing.

Driven from every one of these indefensible positions, their final and only argument left today is that the tariff is imposed upon foreign imports to enable the manufacturer to increase his profits and pay higher wages.

The Democratic platform declares that: "In the most highly protected industries, such as cotton and wool, steel and iron, the wages of the laborers are the lowest paid in any of our industries."

Proof of this statement is found in reports of many recent official investigations of wages in the United States. Wages in Cotton Industry.

Under the existing Payne-Aldrich tariff law actual imports of cotton cloth paid in 1910 average duties of 6.4 per cent.

In 1905, when work and wage conditions in the cotton industry were exceptionally good, the wages of 202,211 cotton mill operatives in the United States—men, women and children—averaged only $6.47 a week. The average wage for men was but $7.71 a week, for women $6.80 and for children, $3.21.

As to the profits, seventeen leading cotton mills, with total capitalization of $25,110,000 and total surplus of $21,363,601, paid in nine years dividends averaging 22 per cent.

The cotton manufacturers turned out in 1905 $442,451,218 worth of goods and paid in wages therefore $94,337,695, or 21 per cent of the value of the finished product.

Extortion of Wool Tariff.

Outside of the duties on two or three commodities of comparatively little importance, the duties on woolen cloth are the highest of any in the tariff schedules. According to Senator Reed Smoot, owner of a woolen mill at Provo, Utah, and chairman of the finance committee in charge of tariff legislation in the senate, wearing apparel valued at 30 cents a pound now pays 206.23 per cent duty.

This and other correspondingly high duties on the manufactures of wool are made to enable the manufacturer to pay his labor an increased wage over those of foreign countries. But the duty on foreign goods is nearly five times the entire labor cost, while the American manufacturers in 1905 paid in wages only 18 per cent of the total value of their production.

At Lawrence in this most highly protected industry the laborers were obliged to strike even for a living wage. Thousands of adult males were receiving only from $6 to $9 a week and many only $5 to $6 a week. As a result of the strike the American Woolen company gave its employees slight increases in wages.

The wool tariff bill vetoed by President Taft reduced the duties on raw wool from 42.20 to 29 per cent, and on manufactures of wool from $7.65 to 48.56 per cent. Mr. Taft said he vetoed it because the proposed rates did not comply with the findings of the tariff board. Senator La Follette contradicted the president, saying that the proposed rates varied from per cent lower to 116 higher than the tariff board's findings justified.

Low Wages in Steel.
Manufacturers of iron and steel in 1905 paid in wages only 15 per cent of the total value of their production, while the duty then would average about 46 to 47 per cent, and on all metals it now averages 34.61 per cent.

American wages are really the cheapest wages in the world when you take into account the amount of production per man.

An illustration of this appears in the Stanley report, investigating the steel trust, as follows:

"The labor cost of producing pig iron in Pennsylvania fell from $1.25 a ton in 1902 to 82 cents a ton in 1909, yet the realized value of the pig iron output was $15.64 in 1902, whereas it was $17.44 in 1909. In other words, wage workers in 1902 got $1.25 for producing only $15.64 worth of pig iron and in 1909 only 82 cents for producing $17.44 worth."

While thus treating labor the industrial combinations that have grown up under the protection of the tariff have fixed the prices of commodities at the highest point the home market would stand. For twelve years they have been unjustly transferring through the protection tariff billions of dollars from the earnings of labor into their own pockets.

When will the laboring men of the country cast off this delusion that the tariff is for their benefit and with their votes strike down this monstrous injustice?

HOW TO TAKE A SUN BATH

Treatment is Declared to Be a Sure
Cure for Many Varieties of the Ailments of Humanity.

The sun bath is rapidly gaining popularity. It was not unknown to the Romans, who indulged in sun baths to cure gout and rheumatism. The buildings they erected in their villas for the sunray treatment were styled solariums.

All that is needed is the sun; but it should not be allowed to beat down upon the head, which should be covered. The prospective sun-bather should get into an ordinary bathing costume and lie down in a convenient spot on a rug. Care should be taken to secure a position well out of the wind, and, of course, the body must be moved about every ten minutes to avoid undue burning of any specific part of the anatomy. Also, a bath should never by any chance last longer than an hour. Dizziness, extreme excitement, even faintness will be the inevitable result should this warning be disregarded.

The sun bath is said to be an almost infallible cure for certain skin diseases, for undue corpulence and run-down nerves.

Perhaps the cult of the sun bath is more popular at a small place near Berlin, where the adherents of the new and simple cure have formed themselves into an association.

The sum of $95,563.54 was sent to 37 Progressive state committees for the work of state organization.

The Progressive national committee received 4,687 contributions of $1 each, 16 of 25 cents each, 12 of 50 cents each, and a large number of from $20 to $250. The total contributions of Merrill McCormick, vice-chairman of the national committee, were $1,600.88.

FEDERAL ARMY DECEIVED DIAZ?

Soldiers Say Rebel General Told His Men Troops Were Coming to Enlist in His Cause.

Vera Cruz, Oct. 25.—Gen. Felix Diaz, captured in the wreck of his rebellion, told his men that the federal troops advancing on Vera Cruz were coming to enlist under his flag of insurrection. Therefore, when Madero's soldiers came in view the rebels gave way as they would to friends. They made no resistance and the fall of the city before the loyal force was brought about so easily that it could be looked upon as a farce but for the tragedy, it is believed, awaits in the fate of the leader. That was the explanation of the lack of resistance they showed, as given by the Diaz soldiers.

Kaiser Studies Mine Safety.

Berlin, Oct. 25.—The German emperor is giving his close personal attention to the prevention of mine disasters and hopes by means of chemistry to find a practicable safety device. In a speech at the chemical institute of the Emperor William Scientific Foundation he explained that his idea contemplated a harmless chemical compound, a change in which would warn miners of the danger of fire damp.

Slayer Caught in Cornfield.

Butler, Mo., Oct. 25.—Watson Sherrington, wanted in Oklahoma on a charge of murder, was captured in a cornfield five miles north of here by Sheriff Bullock and his deputies. About two weeks ago Sherrington shot and killed Marshal Murphy of Fairfax, Ok., while resisting arrest after stealing a team, it is charged. He escaped and came to Bates county.

Fire in Michigan Prison.

Jackson, Mich., Oct. 25.—Fire destroyed the binder twine warehouse inside the walls of the state prison here. The building contained more than 500 tons of sisal stock, and as the state carries no insurance, the loss will be heavy. The blaze is believed to have been of incendiary origin.

MANY MISSOURI HOGS DYING

FARMERS BLAMED FOR SPREAD OF HOG CHOLERA.

Pettis County Expert Says If Carcasses Are Burned, Epidemic Will Soon Stop.

Sedalia, Mo., Oct. 25.—S. M. Jordan, manager of the Pettis county board of agriculture, after receiving reports from several counties in regard to the spread of hog cholera, said the disease is costing Missouri millions of dollars yearly because the law is not enforced.

Cholera is a germ disease, Mr. Jordan says, and highly contagious. The germs are carried by streams of water, pigeons, dogs, crows, buzzards, flies and by persons.

Serum does not prevent the disease being spread by dogs and birds when they have access to the carcasses. Burning is the best way to dispose of the dead hogs.

The law requires that the bodies be buried or buried within 24 hours after they die, but instead the bodies are sometimes thrown into streams or ditches and all carry eating animals and birds feed upon them. The water carries the germs down the stream to other farms. Mr. Jordan says that if the law is enforced the disease can soon be wiped out practically and serum and sanitation will do the rest.

Wisconsin, First State in the Union to Write Policies, Ready for Applications.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 25.—The state of Wisconsin formally went into the insurance business, establishing a precedent, inasmuch as no state's citizens have heretofore been taken as insurance risks by the state in which they live.

Herman L. Ekern, state insurance commissioner, has just opened his office for applications in accordance with an act of the last legislature. Policies of $500 up will be written, payments to be made yearly, semi-yearly, quarterly or monthly. Any policy holder may be his own agent under the new plan and any healthy resident of Wisconsin between the ages of 20 and 50 is eligible.

The trip will be completed in four or five days.

Shrapnel Exploded in Vise.

Junction City, Kan., Oct. 25.—A shrapnel shell that had been placed in a vise exploded at Fort Riley and the base tore a hole in one gun shed, while the point, with its 250 bullets, riddled the roof of another shed. Sergeant Crane of battery C, who had been tinkering with the shell, stepped away from it an instant before the explosion and was uninjured.

Mystery in Czarevitch's Case.

Berlin, Oct. 25.—Startling rumors concerning the condition of the czarevitch were current here. One report had it that the boy was stabbed by a nihilist, another that he is a victim of a serious kidney trouble, but none of these rumors was verified. The czarina, according to one report, tried to leap from a high window when she learned how seriously her son was ill.

Cholera Sweeping India.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Cholera again is sweeping India, according to a report to the United States public health service. In August, in the province of Madras alone, there were 21,306 cases and 10,620 deaths, and in other parts of the empire an equally ominous mortality prevailed.

LIEUT. BECKER IS CONVICTED

Jury Brings Verdict of Murder in First Degree.

PEVALTY IS ELECTRIC CHAIR

Police Officer Responsible for Killing of New York Gambler Will Appeal Case—Heads Ring of Grafters.

New York, Oct. 25.—Police Lieut. Charles Becker was found guilty of murder in the first degree by the jury which has been trying him for instigating the death of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler.

The verdict was received at 12:02 o'clock a m.

Becker was remanded for sentence to the Tombs by Justice Goff until October 30.

Mrs. Becker, sitting outside the door of the courtroom, fell in a swoon when the verdict was announced.

To Appeal at Once.

John F. McIntyre, Becker's chief counsel, announced that he would take an immediate appeal, but added beyond this he had nothing to say.

At 11:57 o'clock Justice Goff entered the courtroom and bowing low to counsel, took his seat. The jury roll was called. The clerk then asked the jurors if they had reached a verdict.

"We have," announced the foreman. The jury rose to its feet.

"We find the defendant guilty as charged in the indictment," Mr. Skinner said, slowly and evenly, looking squarely at Justice Goff.

"Do you find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree as charged in the indictment?" asked the clerk.

"We do," the foreman replied.

Jury Roll Called.

The court then directed that the roll of the jurors be called for their individual verdicts. As he repeated the question: "Do you find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree as charged?" each juror answered, "I do."

Charles Becker sat in his cell in the Tombs while across the "bridge of sighs," in the darkened Criminal Courts building, 12 men struggled to decide whether he was guilty of the murder of Herman Rosenthal.

Depended on Schepps.

The charge, in effect, was a ruling that the guilt or innocence of the prisoner rested almost solely upon the point as to whether Sam Schepps was an accomplice to the crime. Dapper little Schepps, when arrested at Hot Springs, styled himself the "keystone of the arch." As events transpired he spoke truer than he knew.

The judge himself was doubtful as to Schepps' status and declined to guide the jurors in a decision. What he did instruct them to do was to return a verdict of first degree murder or second degree murder or to acquit the defendant. Manslaughter was eliminated and "a no-compromise verdict" was directed upon the motion of Becker's lawyer. By far the greater part of the court's instructions dealt with murder in the first degree, the penalty for which is the electric chair.

STANDARD RAISES STEEL PRICE

Rockefeller Concern Cuts Off Fuel Oil—Result, $12 a Ton More for Castings.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—No more fuel oil will be sold by the Standard Oil company after December 1, according to an announcement just issued. The result of this action will be an increase of 50 per cent in several of the products of manufacturers.

The decision to stop the sale of unrefined oil for fuel was reached after an investigation showed far greater profit in selling the same product after it is refined.

Notices were received here that a large Milwaukee steel manufacturing concern would advance the price of its steel castings an average of $12 a ton, as soon as the new Standard Oil rule is put into effect.

Police Guard Hotels.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Principal hotels and cafes of the National capital were guarded by police as one of the first developments in the waiters' strike which has just begun and left many travelers hungry. Places of the strikers have been partially filled by negro waiters. The hotel managers say sufficient strikebreakers are on their way from New York.

CLEVER THIEVES BUT PAY CHECKS

Railroad Paper Worth $8,000 Taken From Boy at Minneapolis.

TOLD MESSENGER FAIRY STORY

Crooks Succeeded in Cashing About $2,000 Worth in Stores Before Payment was Stopped—Real Employees Turned Down.

Minneapolis, Oct. 25.—After a daring robbery, in which 173 $500 Line pay checks totaling about $8,000, were obtained from Oscar Christianson, a messenger boy, by a ruse, in the crowd on one of the principal streets of the city at noon, two men, dressed in business suits, visited a dozen department stores and other places of business in the afternoon, before warning could be issued, and cashed about 20 of the checks, valued conservatively at $2,000. The men disappeared, while almost the entire central station detail of plain clothes men were working on the case.

Employees Suffered. Late in the afternoon and at night it was practically an impossibility for the 2,000 bona fide employees of the railway to get cash for their checks, as the result of the warning that was issued by the railway as soon as the robbery was discovered.

The men, the police declare, narrowly escaped detection a number of times, but finally disappeared, laden with packages and with hundreds of dollars in their pockets, leaving the authorities with nothing upon which to work except a variety of descriptions.

Told Boy Smooth Story.

According to the story of Christianson, one of the men, who later cashed the checks, approached him as he was carrying the checks from the road's general offices to the freight station and told him he was from the paymaster's office and that he had been sent to take the checks back to the general offices, as the indorsement of an official had been omitted. The boy says he gave up the checks, but becoming suspicious within a short time, called H. N. Payst, the paymaster, and told him of the incident. The police were notified immediately.

The men narrowly escaped capture when they attempted to pass one of the checks at a local bank, which had already been notified of the theft. The clerk stepped from the window to telephone the police, when the man ran from the door, leaving the check on the counter.

GAVE UP SKIN TO SAVE HER BOY

Newton, Kan., Woman Makes Sacrifice for Son, Badly Burned—Operation Successful.

Newton, Kan., Oct. 25.—A case of skin grafting is being performed by Dr. Max Miller at the Bethel hospital here. The patient is Melvin Norcross, eight-year-old son of J. A. Norcross. The supply of new skin is being taken from the legs of the boy's mother.

The child was severely burned on the chest and legs several weeks ago when a playmate threw a lighted match inside his waist. Skin-grafting was necessary to save the child. The mother readily consented to give the required amount. Several operations will be necessary. The first application of borrowed skin has already been made and it seems to be a complete success.

Soldiers Slipped Out of Camp to Town, Returning Late, Found No Camp.

Junction City, Kan., Oct. 25.—A number of members of the sixth field artillery spent the night scouring the Fort Riley reservation in search of the regimental camp. They had walked to Junction City early, and on their return found the regiment had gone. About 10 o'clock the command had been given to break camp and the regiment made a forced march into the post and went into quarters. The culprits were arrested on returning to the post in the morning.

Slayer Got Life Sentence.

Claremore, Ok., Oct. 25.—Jackson Triplett of Collinsville, Ok., on trial on the charge of murder in the first degree, was found guilty and sentenced to life imprisonment by a jury in the district court here. Triplett shot and killed Deputy Sheriff Starr at Collinsville last month.

Murderer Was Shot.

Salt Lake City, Oct. 25.—James Riley, convicted of the murder of George Fassell, a grocer, was shot to death by five riflemen at the state prison here. Harry Thorne, Riley's partner, was put to death in the same way September 26.

Osborn in Wreck.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Gov. C. E. M. Osborn of Michigan was one of those hurt in a collision of a Michigan Central passenger and a Big Four train in the yards here. His right foot was so badly hurt he had to use a cane to walk. Mrs. Osborn was not hurt.

HEADACHY, CONSTIPATED, BILIOUS, TAKE DELICIOUS "SYRUP OF FIGS"

If headachy, bilious, dizzy, tongue coated, stomach sour and full of gas, you belch undigested food and feel sick and miserable, it means that your liver is choked with sour bile and your thirty feet of bowels are clogged with effete waste matter not properly carried off. Constipation is worse than most folks believe. It means that this waste matter in the thirty feet of bowels decays into poisons, gases and acids and that these poisons are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which should suck only nourishment to sustain the body.

Most people dread physic. They think of castor oil, salts and cathartic pills. They shrink from the after-effects—so they postpone the dose until they get sick; then they do this liver and bowel cleansing in a heroic way—they have a bowel washday—

That is all wrong. If you will take a teaspoonful of delicious Syrup of Figs tonight, you will never realize you have taken anything until morning, when all the poisonous matter, sour bile and clogged-up waste will be moved on and out of your system, thoroughly but gently—no griping—no nausea—no weakness. Taking Syrup of Figs is a real pleasure. Don't think you are drugging yourself; it is composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics, and constant use cannot cause injury.

GOOD HORSES STILL NEEDED

Raisers May Have Little Fear That the Supply is Shortly Likely to Exceed the Demand.

The recent war game demonstrated the dearth of horses suitable for months in a section once famous for the excellence of its native horses. This community was scourred for suitable animals, and none was to be had, and the government agents said that the same conditions obtain elsewhere throughout the country, handicapping the army authorities greatly.

There is the germ of a profitable idea for our farmers in these facts. The man who has grazing facilities, and who will turn a part of his endeavors to the raising of a general purpose type of saddle horse, will not only reap a substantial money reward, but will perform a patriotic mission, not for the army, but for humanity.

The "hook" of the motor car need bring no fears to the man who will go into the perfecting of a type of horse to be known as the York state saddle horse. The aeroplane need cast no shadows over the project, improve the horse. The better he becomes adapted to man's wants the more docile and safe, the more beautiful, the greater will the demand for him grow.—Troy Standard Press.

The Leader.

All I think, will allow that these attributes should belong to a friend of the constitution: First, that he should be of free descent by both parents, so that the disadvantage of birth may not imber him against those laws which preserve the democracy. Second, that he should be able to show that some benefit has been done to the people by his ancestors; or, at the worst, that there has been no enmity between them which would prompt him to revenge the misfortunes of his fathers on the state. Third, he should be virtuous and temperate in his private life, so that no profligate expense may lead him into taking bribes to the hurt of the people. Next, he should be sagacious and able to speak—since our ideal is that the best course should be chosen by the intelligence and then commended to his hearers by the trained eloquence of the orator—though, if we cannot have both, sagacity must needs take rank before eloquence. Lastly, he must have a stout heart or he may play the country false in the crisis of danger or war.—Aeschines (389-314 B. C.).

Too Big an Insult.

Angrily the head of the haberdashery concern stormed into the employment agency and demanded an interview with the manager. "I understand," he said, "that you have been recommending as A1 collectors certain young men whom you represent as having collected money from us. If they can get it from us, they can get it from anybody. That's the way you make it appear, consequently your clients land good jobs." With visions of possible libel suits rising before his guilty conscience, the agent attempted self-justification. "You are considered pretty hard about, you know," he said. "Oh, that's all right!" said the man. "It ain't that I'm kicking about, but not one of your men has ever collected a dollar at our shop, and it don't do any good to lie about it."
